Crew will be attending World fest the weekend of May 4-6th. In conjunction with the Scouts for an Eagle Scout project they will be building a new swing set for the club (May 25-26). Note that youth archery on Sunday nights is over until fall. Crew is still selling maple syrup that they helped produce here in Ashtabula County for @12.00 per bottle. *Also, thanks to the crew and scouts for the Landscape work they have done at the club. They did an excellent job. The crew will be present for the upcoming fishing derby.

CCW Class

There was a class held in April and $100.00 was awarded to the club for the Archery Program. Although there were only 6 kids in the class, all kids passed the new harder test.

Bird Preserve

At the last shoot of the Spring, 32 shooters (16 dogs) participated bring in $1,600.00 in fees to the club. First place went to Sharon Dwertman (Willy, German Shorthaired Pointer). Second place went to Bill Burnett (English Setter).

Fields will now be closed until September as we will be getting ready for planting in the next couple weeks. John wants to thank everyone for helping make this a successful season. A special thanks to Big Rex. Chef of the day and Barry Palmer.

Fishing Derby - June 9th

The fishing derby will be June 9th and we need volunteers to help in all areas. Measuring fish, help cooking, etc. The scouts will be camping overnight, and the Venture Crew will be helping this year. There will be a work party on the 8th to help get the club ready for this event.
